Attorney General's Fair Labor Division Enforcing the Massachusetts Wage and Hour Laws

Speaker – Barbara Dillon DeSouza

Assistant Attorney General Fair Labor Division of Massachusetts

Tuesday, March 22, 2016 8:00 am – 10:00 am, FREE!

CareerPoint is pleased to invite you to attend a workshop on the laws that the Attorney General's Fair Labor Division enforces, including the payment of wages, minimum wage, overtime and misclassification of employees. Our special guest speaker: Ms. Barbara Dillon DeSouza will also discuss the broad powers of the Fair Labor Division to investigate and enforce violations of these laws and explain the various ways a company can become the subject of an investigation. Finally, Ms. Barbara Dillon DeSouza will note some resources available to companies to keep informed of the laws.

Ms. Barbara Dillon DeSouza is an Assistant Attorney General in the Fair Labor Division of the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office. She focuses on enforcing the Massachusetts Wage and Hour Laws, including the Prevailing Wage laws. She has been with the Office since March 2010.

Prior to joining the Attorney General's Office, Ms. Barbara Dillon DeSouza worked for the Massachusetts Department of Revenue, Child Support Enforcement Division. Ms. Barbara Dillon DeSouza also lived for several years in Las Vegas, Nevada where she worked for a management-side labor and employment law firm and then as a Deputy Attorney General with the State of Nevada Attorney General's Office. Ms. Barbara Dillon DeSouza is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire and Suffolk University Law School.
